

OFFICE OF THE REGISTRAR OF CO-OPERATIVE SOCIETIES IN MYSORE, BANGALORE.

Circular No. 18—C. S., dated 5th March 1941.

The attention of the Secretaries of all Co-operative Societies in the Mysore State is invited to Government Notification No. A. F. 6169—C. S. 14-38-52, dated 9th May 1940, framing the following Rule 6-E under the Mysore Co-operative Societies Act disqualifying defaulters from voting at the general meetings of a Co-operative Society.

“6-E.—Notwithstanding anything contained in the bye-laws of a society, no member who is in default to the society in respect of his dues for a period of three months or more and who has not paid up the amounts overdue at least seven days before the date of the general meeting, in spite of a notice having been issued to him, shall be eligible to vote at the general meeting of such society.”

Explanation.—A member shall not be deemed to be a defaulter if he obtains from the Committee of Management an extension of time for the payment of a debt before it becomes due but not after.

From the above it will be seen that a member shall not be deemed to be a defaulter if he obtains an extension of time for the payment of his dues before the due date. As this is a statutory rule, the circular instructions issued in this Office Circular No. 1—C. S., dated 4th July 1939, in this respect as per G. O. No. D. 10607—C. S. 90-38-2, dated 19th—21st June 1939, should be treated as having been modified to the extent noted in the explanation to the said Rule 6-E. abovementioned.
